AGAINST THE SHAKERS.

Judge Barr Renders a Decision in an Important Case.

Judge Barr, of the United States District Court, on Thursday filed with Mr. W. J. Chinn, the clerk of the court in this city, an opinion in the case of Oliver Watson vs. The Society of Shakers which has been pending in the court for some time. It seems that Watson, who lives at Fredericksburg, Virginia, holds a note for $10,000 executed by the Society of Shakers at Pleasant Hill, Mercer county, which he attempted to collect when the Shakers refused to pay it, claiming that the note was a forgery and without consideration. Judge Barr, in his opinion, holds that the note is genuine and gives judgment for the full amount, with eight years' interest. He also orders that the Society be given six months in which to pay the judgment, holding that as individuals the Shakers own no property but as a Society they do, and in case the judgment is not satisfied within the specified time the property of the Society is to be sold to pay the debt. The Shakers will probably appeal the case.

Saved the Sheep.

Mr. Robert Averill drove in a lot of lambs from his father's place on the Lawrenceburg pike Thursday morning to be shipped, and took them around the Boulevard road to the L. & N. stock pens in Bellepoint. In passing the mouth of Devil's Hollow he let them go down to the river for water, but instead of drinking one of the lambs started to swim the river, when Mr. Averill threw off his coat and vest and started to ride in and turn it back, but while in deep water his horse, which was very tired gave out and sank under him. He immediately rolled out of the saddle, swam for the lamb and brought it ashore. Relieved of his weight, the horse got back to the bank all right. It was warm enough to make Mr. Averill enjoy his bath but he was afraid for a time that the combined weight of his clothes and lamb was going to carry him under.

WE BEAT PARIS.

The game at Paris last Friday was won by the Frankfort club. Merchant and VanDerveer pitched and Wicks Lindsey caught for our boys, who did not have their full team in the field, but that didn't seem to make any difference in the result. The following score is clipped from the Bourbon News, the Frankfort scorer being unable to accompany the team:

Innings . . . 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9—T.
Frankfort . . . 2 0 2 0 1 0 1 0 0—6

Struck Out—By Starring, 5; by Merchant, 3; by VanDerveer, 3. Base on Balls—Off Starring, 4; off Merchant, 2. Passed Ball—Lindsey. Two Base Hit—Lindsey. Stolen Bases—Taylor, 2; Lindsey, VanDerveer, 2; Brewer. Double Plays—Frankfort, 2; Paris, 1. Base Hits—Frankfort, 4; Paris, 6. Errors—Frankfort, 4; Paris, 4. Umpire—Dennis Dundon.

The Frankforts won a rather long drawn out game from the Fred Nicelys, of Louisville, on Saturday afternoon. McChord, a young man from Lakeland, who throws with his left hand, wanted a trial in the box and proved a pretty tough customer for the first four innings, when the locals having secured a big lead he seemed to ease up and allowed the Nicelys to bunch a few hits, which, with some careless fielding on the part of the home team gave them their seven scores. At no time were the visitors in the game, however.

The score:

THE LEGION DONE UP.

The Louisville Legion Club came up Wednesday and played a game with the Frankforts at Thorn Hill Park. The visitors were a good natured, gentlemanly set of fellows, but were not in it from start to finish, as the locals took a big lead the first time they came to the bat and the game was never close enough after that to be interesting—being slow and draggy. The feature of the game was Swango's "flying tackle" of first base to see which was worth the price of admission to the game. He knocked a short ball, made a rush for first and in order to reach it before the ball got there, slid head first, struck the bag with his head, turned a somersault and was safe.

Our home battery, VanDerveer and Lindsey, officiated and the score shows how well they did their work.

Stay at Home.

Don't go away from home in search of amusement on the Fourth. Stay at home and keep cool. There will be two games of ball at the Park; go out and enjoy the fresh air as well as encourage Mr. Marshall in his endeavor to give us a first-class place of amusement. In the evening the German Benevolent Society will give a moonlight picnic in the park, and those two attractions ought to furnish enough fun for any one on a warm day. Try it one time and you will feel better satisfied when the day is over.

Forks of Elkhorn.

Regular services at Buck Run to-morrow at the usual hours. Rev. J. R. Sampey, D. D., of the Southern Baptist Seminary of Louisville will preach.

A protracted meeting is in progress at the Christian Church in this place, conducted by Elder Polk South.

Fifty or more of our Sunday-school people took advantage of the cheap rates offered by the excursion over the K. M. R. R. last Thursday and visited the Zoological Garden in Cincinnati. The company was chaperoned by Rev. J. H. Burdin and Messrs. G. M. Brock and H. Stedman. The day being fine was enjoyed to the fullest extent by all, thereby indicating a never-to-be-forgotten oasis in the life of those so fortunate as to attend. May this be but the beginning of many such profitable and pleasant recreations.

dence of Mr. Barry, South next Tuesday evening, July 3d, for the benefit of the Glee Club of this place.

Rev. J. R. Sampey, D. D., of Louisville, and Rev. S. C. Mitchell and family, of Georgetown, have been rusticated in our section during the past week.

The farmers have about finished harvesting their clover.

Eggs scarce, butter plentiful and blackberry cobblers' next.

Gardens being later than usual but few vegetables have yet appeared. The prospects, however, for an abundance is flattering.

Miss Lena Hertel, of Greenup, is the guest of Miss Annie South.

The farmers have finished harvesting wheat. The crop in the main is excellent, in fact the remark has been made that "Franklin county never had a better."

Owing to the dry season the tobacco crop will be rather less than usual. The excellent season this week will, however, enlarge the prospect.

The corn outlook is very encouraging, notwithstanding the backward spring.

Blackberries abundant—all other kinds of fruit, berries of different kinds excepted, and probably late apples—a failure.

Dr. R. C. French, who has been engaged in the practice of his profession at Midway during the past year, is lying quite ill at his father's home near this place.

Bro. Burdin ministered to his flocks at Bethel and Mt. Pleasant last Saturday and Sunday.

Copious showers of rain have visited our section this week causing all nature to put on new life and a spontaneous outburst of praise to go up to the Giver of all for his goodness to sinful man.

The severest storm of the season visited our section last Tuesday evening. The residence of Mr. R. A. Baker was unroofed and a chimney demolished, besides other damage in the neighborhood of minor import.

Mrs. Maggie Greathouse, of Hawesville, Mrs. Samuella Sargent, of Bridgeport, and Miss Ida Crockett, of Thisleton, have been the guests of Mrs. Fannie Parrent since last report.

Mr. Charlie Kennie and sons have planted their saw mill on the farm of Mr. J. C. Noel, where they are engaged in turning out first class lumber.

The mile of pike under construction, extending from the Estes toll gate to Mr. M. B. Lucas' place, is rapidly approaching completion.
